Day 1 Highlights

- Broken Bridge (Duanqiao): Iconic West Lake scene. April brings peach blossoms and weeping willows - a photographer's dream.
- Three Pools and Misty Island (Sanyi Yinyue): The central island of West Lake, featured on RMB 1 banknote. The lake-view from the island is extraordinary.
- Lingyin Temple: Hangzhou's most famous temple with flourishing incense. Emperor Kangxi's calligraphy 'Yunlin Chan Si' (Cloud Forest Temple) hangs here.
- Feilai Peak: A limestone hill opposite Lingyin, covered with cave sculptures from the 5th-14th centuries.
- Hefang Street: A historic cultural block. April nights are beautifully lit, with local snacks everywhere.

Day 2 (Sunday): Dragon Well Tea + Manjuelong

Time	Location	Plan
08:00-08:30	Hotel Area	Breakfast (hotel included or nearby Hangzhou steamed buns)
09:00-10:30	Longjing Village	Hike the 'Ask Tea of Dragon Well' ancient path, visit Emperor Qianlong's 18 Teapots
10:30-12:00	Meijiawu	Tea plantation cycling/strolling, taste farm tea snacks, soak in tea culture
12:30-14:00	Tea People's Village	Lunch: Dragon Well Shrimp, Tea-Fragrant Ribs, Qingming Rice Cakes (~60 RMB)
14:00-15:30	Manjuelong	Stroll the OSMANTHUS path (quieter in April), visit Spirited Away bathhouse
15:30-16:00	Return	Taxi/Bus to Hangzhou East Station for departure

Day 2 Highlights

- Longjing Village: Home of China's King of Green Tea. The 18 tea trees here were sealed by Emperor Qianlong. April is peak picking season with fragrant tea everywhere.
- Meijiawu: Hangzhou's most famous tea culture leisure village. Tens of thousands of mu of tea gardens - perfect for cycling or hiking.
- Tea People's Village (Charen Cun): A hidden farm-to-table restaurant deep in Longjing Road, beloved by locals for its tranquil setting.
- Manjuelong: A mountain path southwest of West Lake. Quieter in April, perfect for enjoying serene mountain views alone.

April Hangzhou Special Guide

Feature	Recommendation	Notes
Flowers	Prince Bay Park (Taizi Wan)	April: tulips & cherry blossoms in full bloom. Hangzhou's most beautiful flower season
Tea Season	Longjing Village, Meijiawu	April is precisely when pre-Qingming Longjing is harvested - richest aroma, best quality
Weather	15-25 C	Warm and humid with increasing rain. Bring light jacket and rain gear.
Photo Spots	Su Causeway, Baidi Causeway	April: weeping willows + peach blossoms = prime photography season
Transport	Metro Lines 1 & 2	West Lake core: Longxiang Bridge Station; Lingyin: by bus

Important Notes

- AVOID Qingming holiday (Apr 4-6): Choose mid-to-late April weekends. Qingming period sees 3-5x normal crowds and hotel prices surge significantly.
- Book tickets in advance: Lingyin Temple and Yongfu Temple can be reserved via 'Hangzhou West Lake Scenic Area' WeChat official account to skip queues.
- Transit card: Use Hangzhou Metro Alipay/WeChat QR codes, or purchase Hangzhou Tong card for seamless metro + bus travel.
- Clothing: April Hangzhou has occasional showers. Wear anti-slip shoes, bring a foldable umbrella, and light spring outfits for great photos.
- Dragon Well Tea: Buy authentic tea from Longjing Village or Meijiawu legitimate tea farm households. Avoid being overcharged at tourist spots.
- Restaurant reservations: Popular spots like Waipojia and Tea People's Village may have long queues on weekends - book via Dianping (订座) in advance.
- Hotel recommendation: Economy hotels near Wu Shan Plaza / Hefang Street (Hanting, Home Inn) - walking distance to both West Lake and the ancient street.
- Health essentials: Pack motion sickness meds, Band-Aids, and mosquito repellent (tea plantations have many mosquitoes).
